

Justin Wolgemuth

Justin is a lifelong resident of Lancaster County. Three years of his childhood was spent in Guatemala, where his parents served on the mission field providing medical care in underserved areas. Early on he was taught to give back to the community and helps others. Justin has three grown children who came up through the public school system. He is blessed with two granddaughters and lives in East Petersburg for over 4 years now.

Graduating from Manheim Central in 1992, Justin went on to attend St Joseph School of Nursing where he graduated with an Associate's Degree as a Registered Nurse. His Bachelor of Nursing degree is through Millersville University. Justin started in the Intensive Care Unit and spent a large portion of his career focused on the specialty of IV infusion. Using his background in healthcare he moved into management and now works in healthcare operations. In 2002, he became a licensed PA Realtor. Justin spent time over the years providing life and business coaching. Justin served on the Manheim Central School Board from 2007 to 2011. As well as served on a local Zoning Hearing Board from 2012 to 2019.

Justin believes the public education system is key to the success of our youth. Justin has committed his passion and time over the past year plus to serve on the Hempfield School Board. Recognizing the work that is still needed, Justin would welcome the opportunity to serve the Hempfield community for an additional four years.
