

STEVE BRUBAKER

FOR MEMBER OF REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

GET TO KNOW STEVE:

Steve was born and raised in Lancaster County. He lives in the Cocalico area, serving as a committeeman and on the East Cocalico Township Planning Commission. He has assisted fellow conservative Republicans through grassroots efforts, in particular serving as a Trump Force 47 captain. Steve is involved with Citizens Vote, a group that connects candidates with voters. He is employed as an Exercise Physiologist by Penn State Health.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO SERVE:

“Our Founding Fathers designed our government to be participatory, in nature, by including the phrase, “We the People”, in the Preamble to the United States Constitution and implementing a bottom-up type of governance. Understanding that our nation was founded on Judeo-Christian values and, as a follower of Jesus Christ, I feel it is my responsibility to help protect those inalienable rights enshrined in the Declaration of Independence by serving on the Republican State Committee.”
