

CORINNE CLARK

FOR MEMBER OF REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

GET TO KNOW CORINNE:

Corinne currently serves as the Political Strategy and Engagement Director for the Republican Committee of Lancaster County, Secretary for the Lancaster County Young Republicans, and Republican Committeewoman in Mount Joy Borough West District. She previously worked as a Regional Field Director for the Republican Party of Pennsylvania, managing field programs and supporting campaigns across 14 counties in Central Pennsylvania. A graduate of Millersville University with a degree in Government and Political Affairs, Corinne brings a strong background in coalition building and grassroots mobilization.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO SERVE:

"It's important for Young Republicans like myself to get involved and have a voice in vetting, endorsing, and advancing the strongest Republican candidates that best represent our party and our values."

