

GORDON DENLINGER

FOR MEMBER OF REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

GET TO KNOW GORDON:

Gordon is a CPA who has served as a Corporate Controller and Bank Chairman, along with extensive public service including six terms as State Representative for the 99th District in eastern Lancaster County, and his current role as Deputy Auditor General. He has also spent 32 years as a Republican committeeman in Lancaster County, serving as Area Chairman, Treasurer, a former and current member of State Committee, and as both an alternate delegate (2008) and delegate (2016) to the Republican National Conventions from the 11th Congressional District. He has been married for nearly 41 years, is the father of four adult children, and serves on the board of his church and several nonprofit organizations.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO SERVE:

“As a conservative who cares deeply about personal liberty and freedom, I seek to build our party through candidate selection, endorsement, and through winning elections!”