

SHARON OGILVIE

FOR MEMBER OF REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

GET TO KNOW SHARON:

Sharon is a Christian conservative, wife of 34+ years, and devoted mother and grandmother with deep roots in Lancaster County. She cares deeply about faith, family, and freedom and maintains a strong personal commitment to the future of our community and the values that make our country strong. Sharon began her volunteer work in 2018 through door knocking, eventually becoming a committeewoman in Elizabethtown in 2021. She has supported campaigns at every level, having served as an alternate delegate to the 2024 Republican National Convention.

WHY DO YOU WANT TO SERVE:

“I want to serve on the Republican State Committee to strengthen our party through grassroots engagement, principled leadership, and support for strong conservative candidates. I am committed to protecting our values and helping build a unified, effective Republican Party for the future.”